

STUDENT WITHDRAWAL FROM SCHOOL

Means of Implementation

1. When a student has made known his/her intention to withdraw from school, the student will be referred to the school counselor for an exit interview to determine further evaluation and guidance.
2. Guidance counselors and school administrators will use a developing program for the potential dropout.