

Benjamin J.
Phelps
Elementary

Student of the Month

December, 2019

Showing kindness to others!

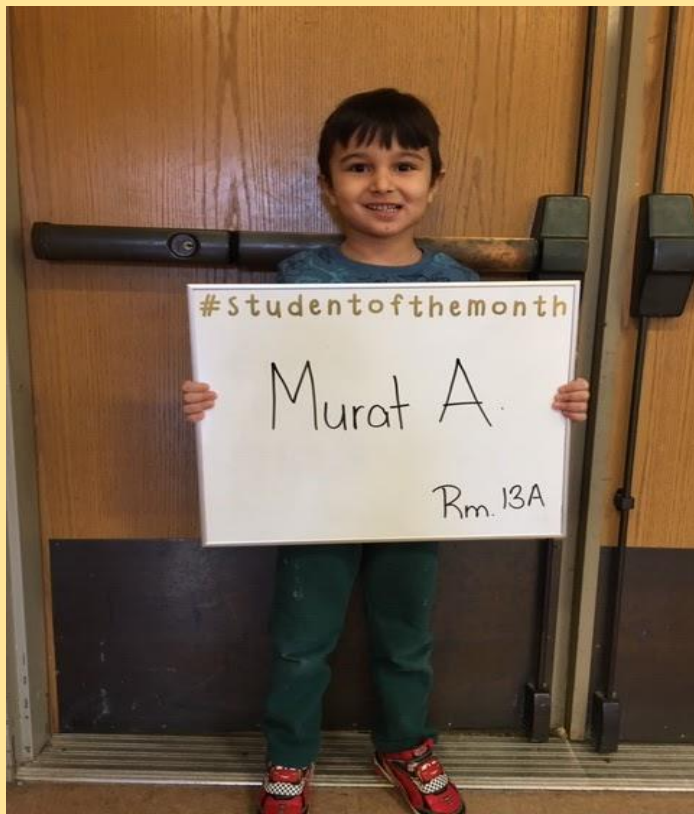

Having a positive attitude!

Having a positive attitude toward learning!

Working hard to be a great student!
Way to go!

Practicing and working hard to learn new things!

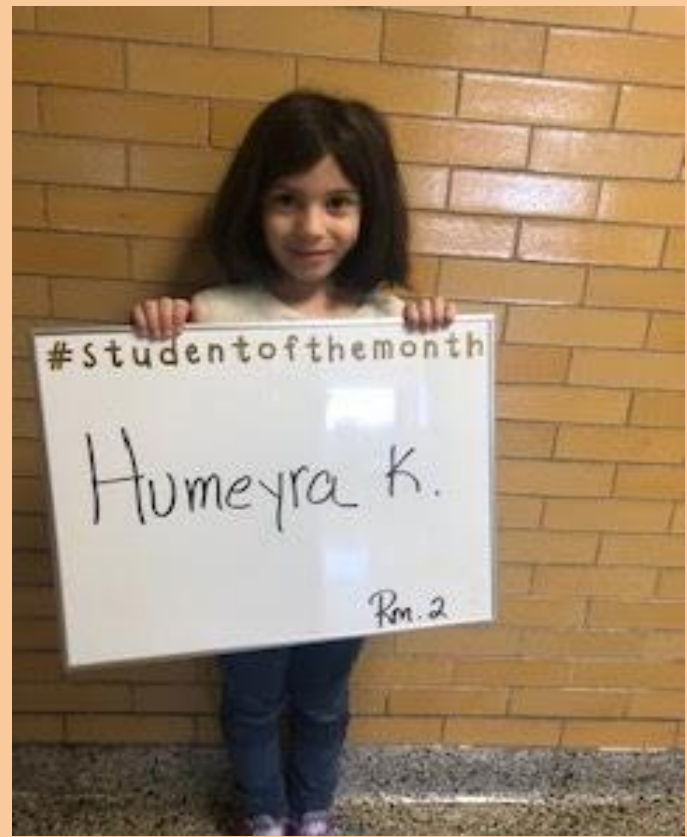

Helping to keep our classroom clean and organized!

First Grade

Working hard to check his own reading!

Checking her reading to ensure that it both makes sense and looks right!

Always trying his best!

Being a kind friend!

Always doing her best work and working quietly!

Working hard to make his reading sound like talking!

Always doing her best work in reading!

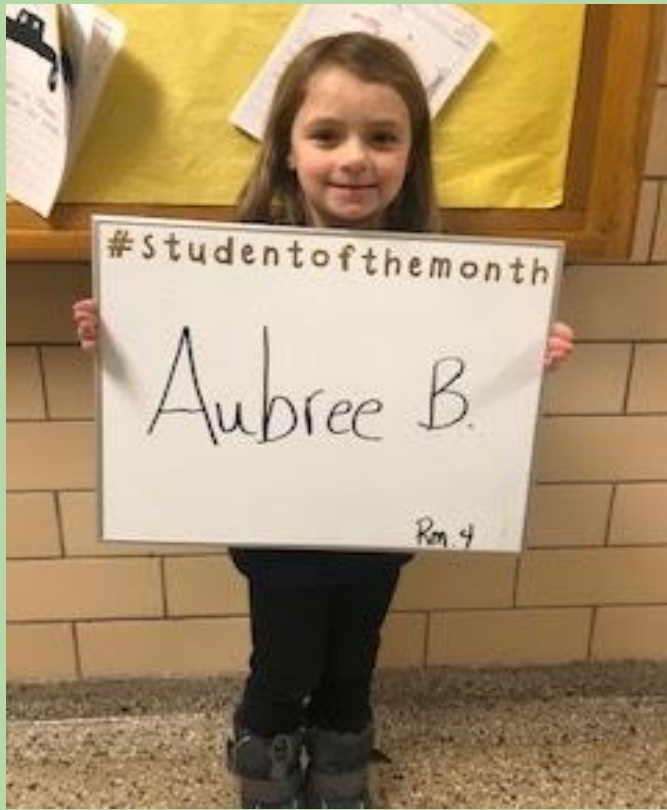

Thinking about the story as she problem solves at difficulty!

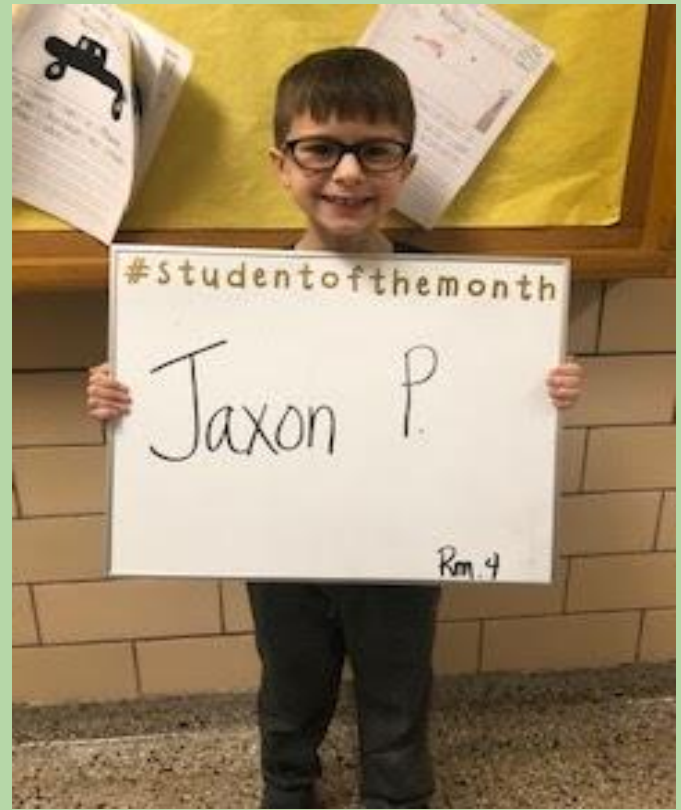

Always doing her best work in math!

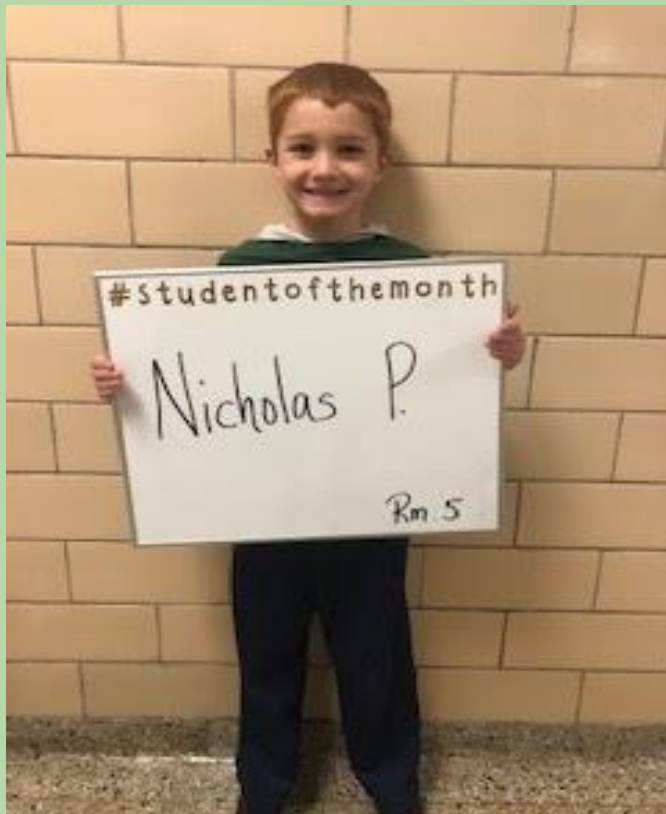

Second Grade

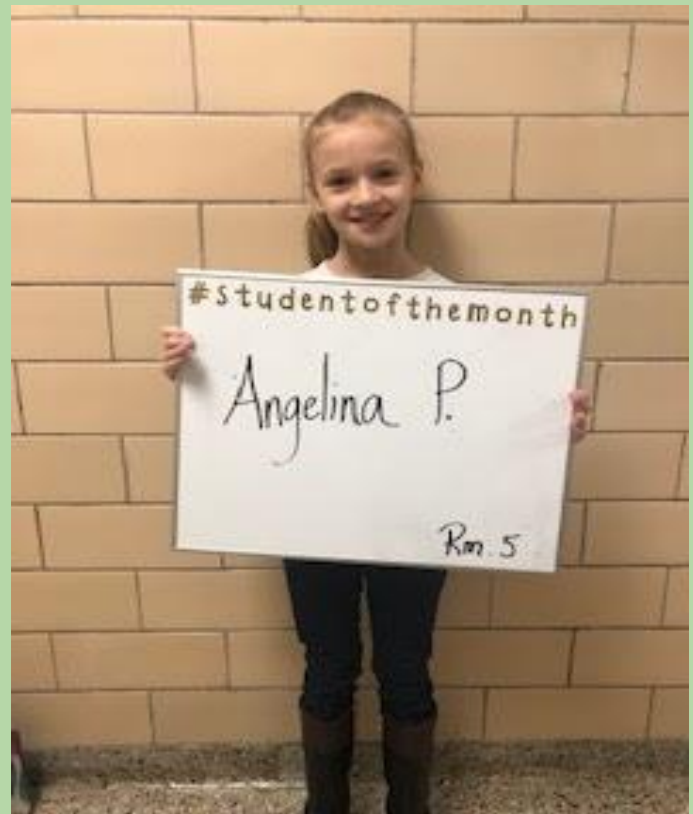

Being super helpful!

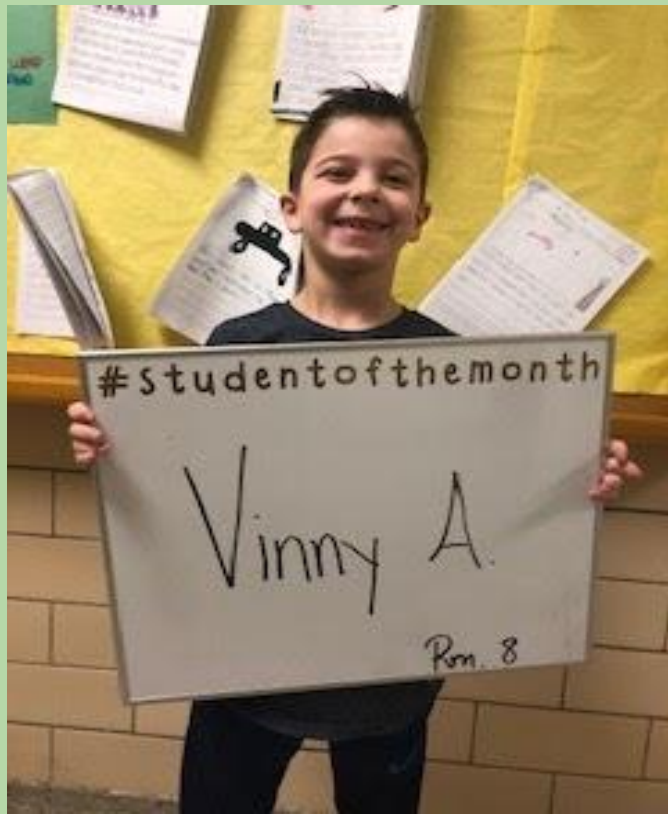

Always encouraging others!

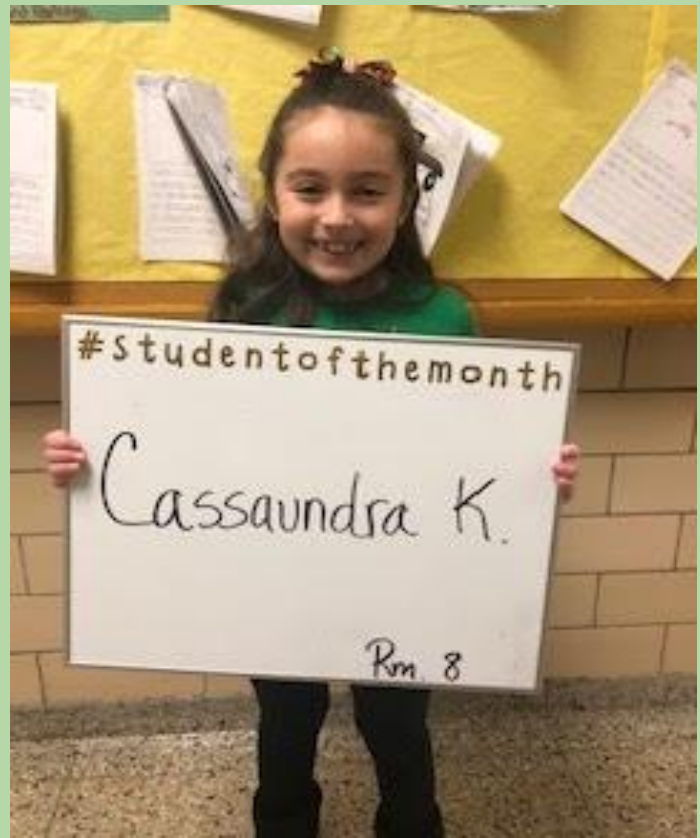

Working hard to improve his printing!

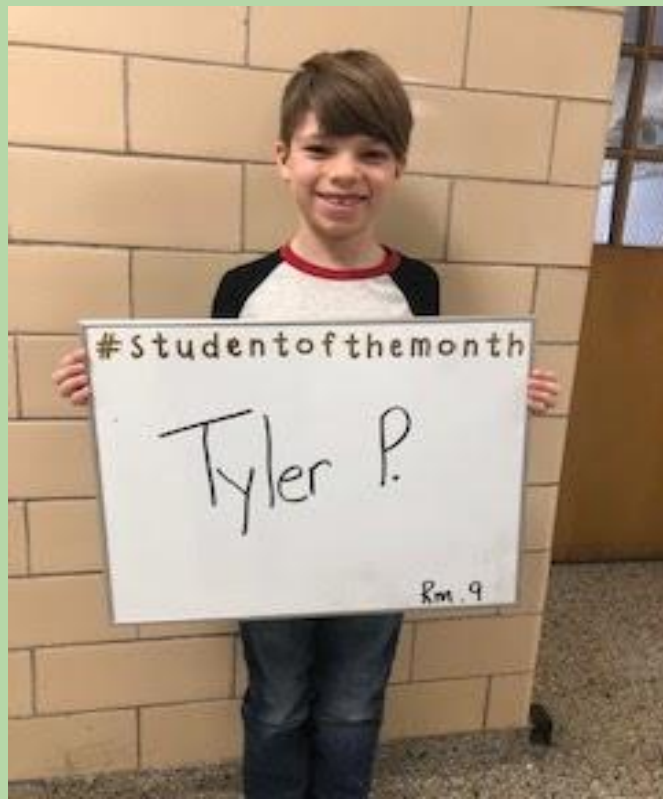

Trying hard and always paying attention in math!

Always being in the "green zone" ready to learn

Being kind to all classmates!

Asking a teacher or peer for help
when he needs it!

Staying positive when things get hard!

Always doing his best work in reading!

Always trying his best in math!

Third Grade

Giving his best effort on all his work and participating during mini lessons!

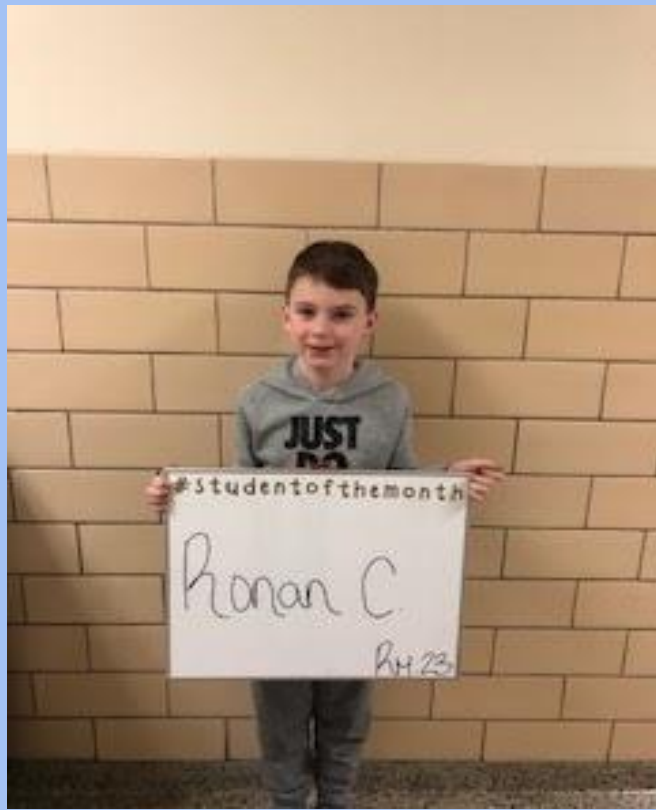

Demonstrating green zone behaviors and being kind to others!

Going above and beyond in all of her work, and letting friends join in during recess!

Sharing his interests and passions each day, and always being enthusiastic about learning!

Being a role model with his responsible and respectful behavior!

Her outstanding participation in our math lessons!

Making sure to complete her work on time and putting in her best effort!

Helping Mrs. Sample with the lunch cards every afternoon, even though it's not her "job!"

Fourth Grade

Always staying in the “green zone”
and showing expected behavior!

Always working hard and trying his best!

Working hard on writing his compare and contrast essay!

Working hard on writing his
compare and contrast essay!

Showing consistent effort in learning long division!

Using strategies to complete assignments and being safe at school!

Congratulations!!

Keep up the great work!

Student of the Month

December, 2019