

Benjamin J.
Phelps
Elementary

Student of the Month

January, 2020

Working hard to keep room 13 clean and tidy!

Using excellent penmanship!

Reminding others how to sit on the rug by using our listening rules and the quiet sign!

Working on solving problems independently!

Jaxin A

Being responsible during whole group time by doing her best listening!

Always being quick to help friends and teachers when they are in need!

First Grade

Always helping friends!

Always helping friends!

Always being a respectful student!

Always trying his best!

Doing her best in reading and writing!

Doing his best in reading!

Working hard to improve in reading and being very helpful in the classroom!

Second Grade

Working hard to complete all of his work!

Being responsible by completing his work!

Always being kind and respectful!

Being responsible and remembering capitals and periods!

Reflecting on which zone he is in and how to get back to green!

Always using his best effort with math!

Working hard to follow all teacher directions!

Using strategies to stay in the green zone!

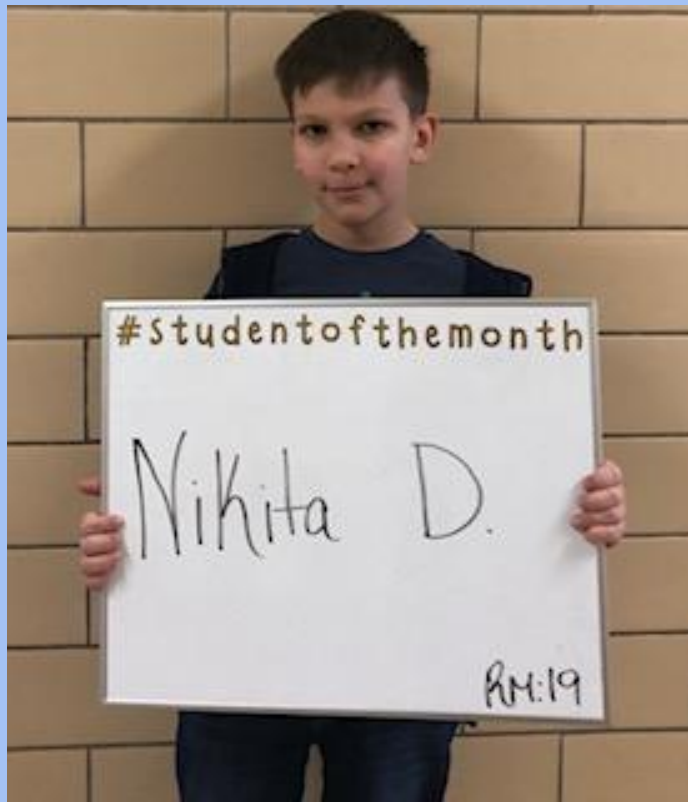

Always doing his best reading and writing!

Doing his best work in reading!

Third Grade

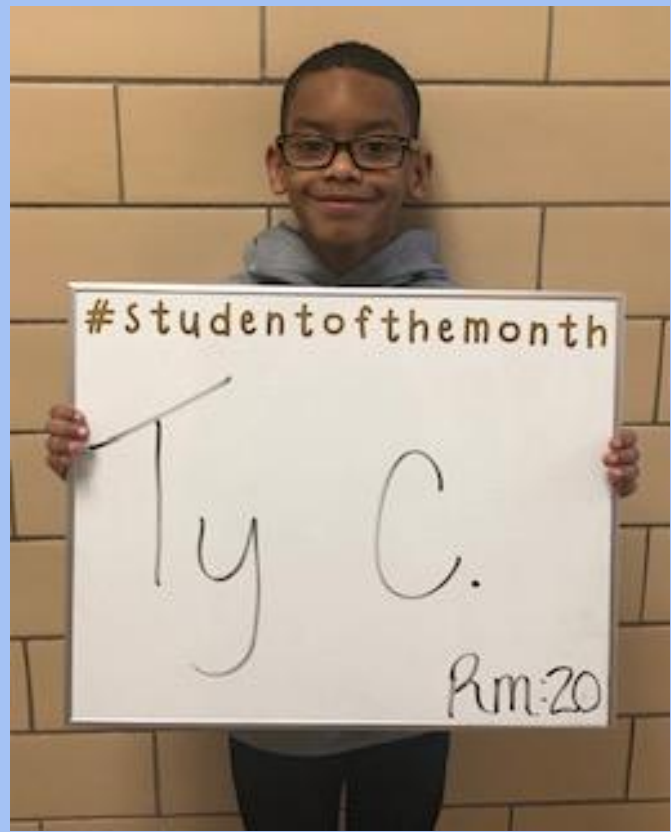

Giving his best effort in math and persevering through challenging problems!

Showing green zone behaviors and giving her best effort on all of her work!

Having such a kind and generous heart!

Always looking out for everyone in his room 20 family!

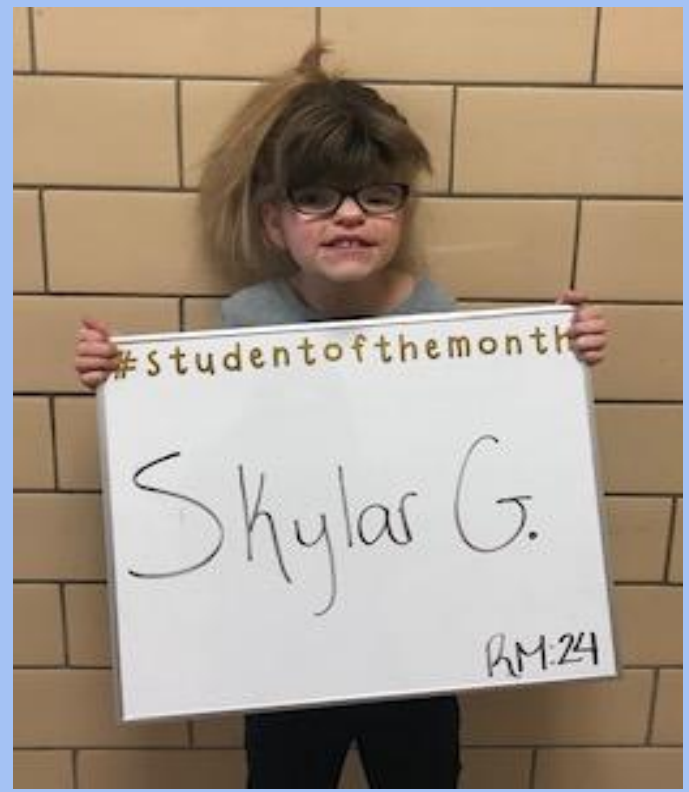

Participating and sharing great thoughts in all minilessons!

Always encouraging and supporting other students!

Being a helpful student and classmate!

Working hard to get her classwork finished!

Always trying her best during math!

Fourth Grade

Always being respectful of others' space and work time!

Going above and beyond to be kind and helpful to others!

Giving his best effort to understand new math concepts and skills!

Working hard on his fictional narrative writing!

Always trying her best during math!

Giving full attention and effort to her academics, even when it's challenging!

Congratulations!!

Keep up the great work!

Student of the Month

January, 2020