

PBIS: What is Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports? Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports is a school wide program which is intended as a behavior support system that allows students to focus on instruction and be successful in school.

PBIS can be described as a team-based approach for establishing effective behavior practices and a system that prevents the development or worsening of problem behaviors. It encourages the teaching and reinforcement of pro-social expectations and behaviors across all school environments for all students by all staff.